5. Meanwhile on earth the Era of Terror / Tribulation has begun
6. This is the seventieth week of Daniel divided in half - 3.5 yrs each
7. This Tribulation period starts with the Prince of this world signing a Peace Treaty with Israel
8. But half way through he shows his true colours and desecrated the Temple and starts arranging a world-wide attack on Jerusalem
9. The Tribulation culminates in the Battle of Armageddon
10. This entire period, from the original destruction of Jerusalem when Daniel was still a young man is known as the 'time of the Gentiles'
11. From this point forward it is called 'The Kingdom of God' - a common term throughout Scripture, but in its full form from this point forward

Tribulations ends abruptly when Jesus returns as King winning the battle of Armageddon. He arrives with the church saints to reign over the world.

But not all people are killed. The battle is won through the rotting of the soldiers in their positions, the human anti-Christ is destroyed, but there are still many people alive – some believers, especially Jews, and then many unbelievers.

>The Sheep/Goat judgement then takes place to separate the remaining people into the believers and unbelievers group. The unbelievers are all destroyed and the believers continue with Jesus

Matthew 25:31-46 Hence the name. Glorious end to Olivet Discourse

Mal 3:16-4:2 distinction and Jewish salvation

>Satan is bound for the beginning of the Millenium, (and is only released at the end).

Rev 20:1-3 Satan (behind mortal anti-Christ), is bound and timing of 1000 years is given

>The 1st Resurrection takes place, raising all OT saints and Tribulation martyrs to their glorified state.

Rev 20:4-6 (6:9 martyrs) “first resurrection” – Trib saints
(Rapture = resurrection of NT saints)

Dan 12:2 OT believing Israel (the condemned 1000 yrs later)

>Jesus then sets up His 1000 yrs reign over the world from Jerusalem with only, and all, believers.

NB All prophecies of Israel’s future kingdom fulfilled here (since hasn’t been during time of Moses, Judges, David, Solomon, 1st Advent, Church era)

Jer 23:5-6 King of righteousness with Jewish emphasis

Summary big picture again for the sake of simplicity
